County Judge Oks Delinquent Tax Sales

Madison County Judge Michael Kinney last week approved 2063 sales of regular delinquent taxes on real estate in Madison county. The property was sold during a tax sale held Monday and Tuesday at Edwardsville.

Because the sale has been approved by the county judge, persons who own real estate on which the taxes have been sold can begin redeeming the property immediately. They have two years to redeem the property.

If the regular taxes are followed before June 17, no penalty will be involved. Beginning June 18, a 12% penalty is placed on taxes due by the buyer and an additional 12% is added every six months.

The 10-year taxes have a one per cent penalty every month for the first six months and one-half of one per cent thereafter for the remaining two years.

Sheriff Outlines Policy For Tow Trucks At Crashes

A policy for towing wrecked vehicles was announced Saturday by Sheriff Barney Fraundorfer, who said motorists will be asked their choice.

In the event, the vehicle occupants are hurt and must be rushed from the scene, the sheriff said, the tow truck operator is to summon either a wrecker firm nearest the vehicle owner's home or the one closest to the scene in order to quickly clear wreckage away, the sheriff said.

The announcement was made following an investigation of complaints lodged last Wednesday after a "traffic accident on Maryville road and a mixup over tow trucks."

Fraundorfer defended his deputies who summoned another wrecker even though one was on the scene. "The deputies radioed the state police for confirmation of their action after talking to the owner of the overturned auto. He said the owner of the property on which the car landed had called a wrecker to make certain it would be held for the damages."

The property owners said they called the nearest tow truck, believing the woman driver was pinned in the wreckage.

Wrong Man Reported
Having Accident

Edward Prosser, 27, of 2826 Iowa street, was charged with careless driving this morning in connection with an accident that happened a week ago. Police said the auto he was driving struck a parked auto belonging to Pete Thompson, 2011 Grand avenue. The accident occurred about 2:30 a.m. last Monday in front of Thompson's home.

According to police, Prosser gave Thompson the name of Kenneth Wiggins, 2802 Marshall avenue, instead of his own. Consequently, Wiggins, who was not involved in the incident, was listed on the police accident report. The latter came to light when Wiggins read of the accident. Police investigated and contacted Wiggins to Prosser. He was released on $16 bail.

Madison Blitzes Triad, 64 to 42 Enters Holiday Meet With 6-1 Mark

Madison's blitzkrieg, the full-court zone press, wrecked Triad in the second quarter of a non-conference prep basketball game at Triad Friday night and led to the Trojans' sixth win in seven tries this season, 64-42.

The Knights managed just four points in the second stanza against Coach Earl McClanahan's swarming Greenhorns, and never got back into the contest.

Gitt wrapping for the pre-Christmas victory was supplied by Cecil Bell, who rang up 21 points and gathered in 13 rebounds, and guard Gary Skinner, who had his best night of the season offensively with 19 marks.

Getting off to a slow start again, the Trojans fell behind

8-3 in the first quarter, but had pulled ahead 15-12 after eight minutes and did not trail again.

Coach Rick Mason's Knights were no match for Madison after the opening quarter, as they dropped their third straight contest after stringing four victories.

Bell Averaging 20.8
Bell, who played the entire game and was effective on the boards, picked up three quick fouls in the first 10 minutes and was charged with his fourth in the third period. He raised his average to 20.8 points per game, and now has 146 in seven contests.

The Knights bowed him in with a zone defense in the first half, and then switched to a man-to-man in the second half.

and used a press in the final quarter. Madison cut through easily for 25 points in the final eight minutes.

"I was fearful of a letdown, what with no school and the kids lying around all day," said McClanahan. "(Cecil) Robinson (Bell's Stand-in) missed the bus and we had a few anxious moments when Cecil picked up those early fouls. But the kids looked good; they were up for this one. We blew too many layups, but overall it was one of our better efforts defensively."

Madison's press and a checking man-to-man defense under its own bucket held Knight scorers to 10 points below the team's previous season's average of 61 per game. Guard Dave Wells with 16 markers was the only double-figure performer for the hosts.

Reserves Lead Warriors Past Edwardsville, 79-67

Wortham Comes Off Bench, Scores 18 As Tigers' String Is Snapped Friday

The dressing room jokes come a little easier when you've won the ballgame, and reserve forward Larry Wortham was the chief target of some good natured jibes Friday night as Granite City's Warriors slipped out of their sweat-soaked shirts after handing Edwardsville a 79-67 setback.

It was the Tigers' first loss in six games, and Granite City's first in 11 games, but the statistics which seemingly held more interest for the post-game wags was Wortham's free throw shooting.

"You didn't make a one tonight," said one, making a quick check of the scoreboard totals. "You'll have to work on your free throw shooting."

"But I only shot one," Wortham replied seriously, and then catching the drift of the conversation, broke into a quick grin.

Torrid Shooting

Wortham had been dead-end serious about the business of scoring points a little earlier in the evening. It was his third quarter shooting and the later work of Warriors reserves which finally shook GC loose from a huddling, dogged Edwardsville team which led by as many as eight in the first quarter and did not give up without a scrap after Granite City had moved ahead for keeps midway through the third quarter.

Kept in the game by the smallest player on the court, 5-6 guard Al Vest, the Tigers succeeded in fouling out George Moore and Larry Lyle, leaving a fivesome on the floor which had scored just nine points between them.

Standing Ovation

Wortham already had departed, via the same route, but with 18 points to his credit, including a 14-point third quarter which helped break a 30-30 halftime tie and boost GCIS to a seven-point third-quarter advantage.

The 6-3 senior, who took over when Moore and Lyle were fouled out, received a standing ovation from the crowd as he left the court, committing his fifth personal early in the fourth period.

Reliable Reserves

Guard Glen Hoffman, center Elton Hall and forward Charlie Papp, all reserves, helped Warrior bench talent total 32 points in spot appearances. Hoffman, with a couple of key shots from outside late in the third period, and Hall and Papp with their clutch free throw shooting and rebounding in the fourth period.

"Sure, our reserves won this one for us," said the recipient of a nice Christmas gift, Warrior Coach Andy Sullivan. "I felt all along that we had a strong bench, and they had the chance to let it tonight."

Wortham canned seven of nine third-quarter shots, most of them coming on long, fast, accurate jumpers from the side, and hit five in a row at one stage to move the Warriors to a comfortable 47-40 advantage.

Then, when Moore and Lyle fouled out with more than four minutes left in the final stanza, Hall and Papp took over and Granite City PRESS-RECORD Page 6 Mon., Dec. 24, 1962

GC Wrestlers Beat North Chicago, Then Fall Before Spoiler Waukegan

Waukegan high school, which ended a Granite City wrestling streak last season, repeated its act Saturday by handing the Warriors a 2-1 setback.

Coach Bill Schmitt's grapplers, a 31-8 setback in Waukegan.

The defeat ended a Warrior streak which had been stretched to 18 straight the previous afternoon in North Chicago, where GCHS hosted the host school, 27-15.

Thus the Warriors prepare to host a 10-school invitational tournament here Thursday and Friday with a 5-1 dual meet record.

Complete squads from Edwardsville, Wood River, East St. Louis, Decatur, Eisenhower, Springfield, Lanphier, Jackson, Quincy, Mattoon and Ottawa are expected to keep their mats busy at the GCHS gymnasium. The Warriors, defending champions, will enter a full contingent which survived the weekend trip north in good physical condition, with perhaps the exception of 112-pounder Skip MacMillan.

MacMillan, who won at both North Chicago and Waukegan, injured his right elbow during his match with Fred Washington of Waukegan. Schmitt described it as "a partially dislocated elbow, and not as serious as an injury as I had thought at first."

Granite City wrestlers won the first three bouts at North Chicago, which had a 4-2 record going into the meet and led all divisions in the 12 weight divisions by the way, Paul Lapinski, Denny Petroff and Mike Fry each scored five points with pins, with Fry's first of the season.

It was a different story at Waukegan, where the Bulldogs won the last six bouts to ruin their season's record to 8-9 in dual meet competition. The hosts had polished off northern Illinois power Niles the previous night, 36-6.

Lapinski and MacMillan were the only winners for Granite City, with Larry Reynolds salvaging a draw in his 133-pound bout after taking an early 5-0 point lead.

The Bulldogs, in their last 43 dual meets, have only a tie with state champion Reavis to mar a perfect record.

"I was hoping for a split in the two meets, which we got," said Schmitt, "although we would have liked to have made it a little closer at Waukegan. It was closer than the final score would indicate."

Four of the bouts with the Bulldogs were decided by a single point, and two of those came as the result of riding time.

Officiating here when the Warriors' invitational holiday meet begins Thursday will be Jim Wilkerson of Southern Illinois University, Maurice Biliz of University City and Merrill McMan of Ferguson.

A round-robin meet, the tourney provides that a wrestler compete until he has beaten twice in his weight division before he is eliminated.

A team trophy and individual trophies in the 12 weight divisions will be awarded following Petroff and Mike Fry each championship bouts Friday night.

History Of Christmas

CHRISTMAS
John W. Allen
Southern Illinois University

The history of Christmas is long and interesting. As we look into the recorded past we find that it was a widespread practice 2000 years ago to observe on day in the year in a Christmas-like manner.

The time most frequently chosen was that of the winter solstice, Dec. 21 on our calendar. Pagan man observed this day at widely scattered places over the world. Many of the practices used then are those of the present Yuletide. The spirit and thought of both have common features.

Comparisons indicate that our present Christmas is a continuation of the much older winter festival.

Puzzling Winter Solstice
Earlier people did not understand the winter solstice. Hence, as winter days grew shorter and the sun sank lower in its daily course, they were filled with dread.

Would the sun continue its decline until it completely disappeared below the horizon, thereby bringing eternal night?

Christianity Advances

As Christianity advanced, efforts were made to determine the date of Christ's birth. Different countries and localities were celebrating at different times.

One council named Dec. 25 as the date, nearly all others agreed. This being near the winter solstice, churchmen, very commendably, sought to attach the desirable features of the older festival to the newly proclaimed Christmas.

They thus adapted the better features of the pagan practice. The observance of Christmas has become practically universal among both Christians and non-Christians, the latter observing it as a season of friendship and sociability.

From that time when the day first was called Christmas, beliefs and practices have been added.

First Christmas Tree
Martin Luther is credited with arranging the first Christmas tree.

Gustave Koerner, once Governor of Illinois, had the first Illinois tree in his home near Belleville.

Santa rode a great white horse to distribute gifts in Europe. In 1822 the Rev. Clark Moore of Troy, N. Y. wrote the poem, "The Night Before Christmas," and Santa has been using reindeer ever since. Firecrackers, once popular in southern Illinois, were brought to New Orleans by the Italian and Spanish, and north to here.

A thousand or so years ago a maiden hung her wet stockings beside the fire to dry. Santa, scrambling down the chimney, dropped some coins that fell into the stockings, and that custom began.

Deaf boys and girls use wooden shoes.

Carolers go about the streets just as they have done for centuries.

Many a creeche will show the Christ Child, along with wise men and shepherds.

Added Touches
In 1897 Virginia O'Hanlon wrote to Francis P. Church, editor of the New York Sun and asked, "Is there a Santa Claus?" The editor's reply remains a classic.

In 1846 Sir Richard Cole decided that it would be nice to send a few specially made cards at Christmas time. Artist Joseph Candall drew and colored them. This year billions will be sent, bringing joy to about all except the postmen.

In 1909 Pasadena, Calif., arranged a great public Christmas tree. Many will grow this year.

After remembering Christmas for more than 70 years the date is stocked with countless pleasant memories. We believe we will take time out to sit and dream of past Christmases and of those to come.

Merry Christmas.

Registration Starts Jan. 2 At SWIU Centers

General registration for winter quarter classes at Southwestern Illinois University's campus will take place between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Jan. 2 at Alton and East St. Louis. Classes start the next day.

New students and currently enrolled students who did not advance register in November will register at this time.

Registrar John H. Schnabel said it will not be necessary for students to register alphabetically since they will be permitted to register on a first come, first serve basis.

Students registering at Alton will report to the auditorium building, 2808 College avenue, to pick up authorization-to-register permits. Students registering at East St. Louis will report to the west 5th street door of the main building, 9th and Ohio streets, for their permits.

Persons who have not applied for admission may still do so. However, transcripts and other credentials must be received by the admissions office in Edwardsville early enough for authorization permits to be issued. Academic achievement of students at both centers will maintain the same hours on Jan. 2 as will be the admissions office in Edwardsville. Graduate admission also will be available to students during registration.

12 Local Leaders Named Employment Stable At 61 Reporting Firms

The level of employment at 61 reporting firms in the Quad-Cities for the two-month period ending Nov. 15 showed virtually no change, despite fluctuations among various industry groups, according to Malcolm A. Thompson, manager of the Granite City office of the Illinois State Employment Service.

Unemployment increased from 1800 1900 persons over the period, while a year ago the estimated total was 2100. At the same time, employment figures from the reporting firms showed 150 more persons working than was the case at this same time last year.

Thompson said that non-manufacturing categories showed a net increase of 50 employees for the 60-day period, with gains of 25 in both construction and transportation. Only minor changes occurred in other segments of the work force, he added.

Based on estimates from the reporting firms, seasonal declines of 175 in primary metals and 200 in transportation equipment are anticipated within the next two months, together with a seasonal loss of 50 in construction.

No significant increases are expected in the area, which includes Granite City, Madison, Nameoki and Venice townships, and the southern portion of Chouteau township.

Dear Friends:

It was a good many years ago when we wrote our first letter ... a letter to Santa Claus. We asked Santa to bring us a baseball and bat, a football like the real players use, and a history of the United States full of color maps.

In many years of writing we have never achieved better results ... 100% response to our every wish.

From the baseball and bat we learned that when you are "out", there is always another inning with its beautiful opportunities.

From the football we learned to take the hard knocks of life and get up smiling.

From the history we learned about those indestructible pioneers who fought cold, hunger, and wilderness to develop this country of ours. We learned that pioneers are not an extinct breed, but that they can be found in every century. For instance, they may take the form of doctors combating fatal diseases ... of business men pioneering new merchandising methods to bring more good things of life to more people ... of engineers, scientists, and astronauts battling to conquer the unknown outer space.

Today, we are writing another letter to Santa Claus. We are asking him to forget about us this year, but to bring you whatever is closest to your heart, and above all, the peace and quiet joy of this wonderful season.

We are asking him to be real good to you and your family ... as he was to us many years ago when we wrote him our first letter.

Jobs Limited For Young; Need For Skills Also Shows Value Of Completing Education

Are employment opportunities limited for Madison and St. Clair counties youths? State and federal labor and employment surveys indicate that this is the case. And of those who find work, 53% are in occupations requiring limited or no skills.

Other findings of the same studies show that most employers require high school education, and many professional, semi-professional and managerial positions require at least partial college education.

Thus, youngsters in the Illinois Metropolitan Area not only find it difficult to locate jobs at an early age, but also find it to their advantage to continue to remain in school. How these facts can be used to persuade more students to stay in school is one of the unsolved issues prompting the surveys.

Many Do Not Hire Youths
An example of the limitations on jobs for the young can be seen by answers from business firms in the Illinois Metropolitan Area. Of 133 which employ professional personnel, 96 require that those who are hired be 21 years of age or older.

A similar pattern predominates among companies hiring semi-professional and managerial personnel, while the emphasis shifts to the age of 18 among those employing clerical, sales, personal service, protective and building services, skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled workers.

Of the 171 firms hiring unskilled, 21 have no minimum hiring age, 14 list the age of 16, one specifies 17, 94 list age 18, four age 19 and three age 20, while 24 require age 21 and 10 list minimum age of over 21.

In the bi-county area, youths are not given consideration by 66% of agricultural employers, 67% of construction contractors, 32% of wholesale and retail trade firms, 30% of service companies, 28% of transportation, communication and public utilities, 16% of manufacturers, 15% of finance, real estate and insurance offices and 3% of government agencies.

While there are exceptions, a ban on hiring of youths is encountered most often in the smallest companies within each occupational group. Service firms hiring youths average 43 employees; those not hiring youths average 19 employees.

College Training
Full college education is required by 63% of the firms hiring professionals, 14% of those employing semi-professionals and 21% of those hiring managerial personnel.

Partial college education is essential in 75% of the firms in the professional group; 43%, semi-professional; and 33%, managerial.

High school diplomas are described as mandatory by the following proportions of firms: professional, 91%; semi-professional, 81%; managerial, 77%; clerical, 86%; sales, 76%; personal services, 29%; protective and building services, 35%; skilled, 52%; semi-skilled, 34%; and unskilled, 15%.

At least partial high school education is a "must" at 90% of the companies hiring clerical employees; 80%, sales; 37%, personal services; 41%, protective and building services; skilled, 58%; semi-skilled, 37%; and unskilled, 24%.

Commenting on various findings of the Illinois State Employment Service, U. S. Employment Service and Illinois Department of Labor, Malcolm A. Thompson, local ISSES manager, says:

7% of workers under 21 "Of the approximately 41,300 persons of all ages employed in 424 of the responding establishments, 2799 or 7% were under 22 years of age. Each of these firms hired young workers in at least one occupation."

"Another 153 firms with about 6300 employees indicated they currently have no young workers on their payrolls, have hired none in the past year and expect to hire none in the next year. These comprised 26% of all firms answering the questionnaire, and had 13% of the total employment of responding firms."

"The firms which do not hire youths were concentrated in wholesale and retail trade, construction, services and transportation."

Clerical Group Largest

"Of the 424 firms which hire youths in at least one occupational group, the largest occupational group for young workers was clerical, with 41% of all employees under 22 years of age having clerical skills. Among those 22 and older, only 10% are in this group."

"Probably clerical work represents an occupational area where people with little work experience and only a high school education can obtain employment on their entrance into the labor force and for the first few years thereafter."

"Among employees 22 and older, the largest occupational group was skilled; the unskilled group was only slightly smaller. "Skilled workers made up 21% of employees 22 years and older but only 4% of the employed youths. This small number of skilled under 22 reflects the short time they have had to learn such job skills."

Distribution of employment by occupational group among youths shows 86% in clerical, or 30.9% of the 2799 total; 77% in unskilled work; 42% or 15.3%, semi-skilled; 25% or 9.2%, personal services; 15% or 5.4%, sales; 10% or 3.7%, skilled; 10% or 3.6%, semi-professional; 6% or 2.3%, professional; 3% or 1.4%, protective and building services; and 1% or 0.7%, managerial.

Sherry-Flavored Holiday Sweet

A good way to say "Merry Christmas" is with this elegant "Holiday Sherry Candy." These delicious "bites" are rich and sweet and have an elusive flavor that comes from using Sherry wine. There's no cooking, just mix everything together, shape into balls and roll some in powdered sugar, some in cocoa.

With a glass of California desert wine, they make a delightful holiday snack or dessert for company. They will make fine a vase for a garden enthusiast; tuck some into pretty hand-decorated boxes for someone who "has everything."

HOLIDAY SHERBET CANDY
(Makes about 2 1/2 dozen "bites")
2 cups vanilla wafer crumbs 1/2 cup finely chopped blanched almonds
1 cup sifted powdered sugar 2 tablespoons light or dark corn syrup
1/4 cup sifted cocoa 1/4 cup California Sherry
1/4 teaspoon salt
Combine all ingredients and blend well. Roll into small balls about 1-inch in diameter; then roll some in additional sifted powdered sugar and some in cocoa. Store in covered container 48 hours to mellow and blend flavors. Serve as a confection.

The many shapes of Christmas
The spirit of Christmas is tall, short, lean, plump, young, old. It's a man. Or a woman.
Or a beautiful child. Doesn't necessarily wear a Santa suit and hardly ever goes down a chimney.
Nevertheless, Christmas is real—and is embodied in the lives of countless persons of good-will, whoever and wherever they may be. May their numbers multiply.

Farm Column By IRUMAN V. MAY Madison County Farm Adviser

The greatest change in Madison county agriculture in recent years is the discontinuing of dairying on many farms. From 1950 to 1960, milk production in the county dropped 17% from 12,000,000 lbs. of milk to 93,000,000 lbs. In the five years from 1954 to 1959, 595 dairymen sold their herds. The number of dairy farms in the county now has settled down to about 750.

There were several reasons for this change. In most cases the dairymen or the landowners were reluctant to make the investment in the new equipment to meet St. Louis market requirements. Finding dependable labor was another problem.

Some of these former dairymen have gone into the beef cattle business. In 1959 there were less than 2000 beef cows in Madison county. In 1962, there were 2100. The number of hogs increased from 36,000 in 1954 to 61,000 in 1959.

The cow-calf raisers have tried, of course, to maintain their income in changing to other enterprises, but in many cases it has been a difficult situation. A few have even been able to increase their returns, like Henry Herford. Only his name in this story is changed.

Henry operates the family farm of 260 acres, with 195 acres tillable. He was milking 23 Holstein cows, raising 15 liters of milk yearly and feeding 50 steers. The crop averages are about 50 acres each of corn for grain, corn for silage and wheat, 15 soybeans and 20 acres hay and pasture. His crop yields are good as he follows recommendations for soil conservation and improvement, crop varieties, weed control and other practices.

The cows were good producers. On D.H.I.A. test they averaged 12,500 lbs. milk yearly with $300 return per $100 feed cost, compared to $200 average in the Farm Bureau Management Service, in which Henry is a co-operator.

Henry realized he would have to reduce the number of livestock he had to be had tillable hired labor. Costs of improving his dairy equipment to meet market requirements were very high, so he decided to drop dairying and increase hogs and beef cattle.

Mrs. Harry Epstein, who is prominent in YMCA affairs, commended Mrs. O'Guin for her efforts with the club.

Mrs. O'Guin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Heston, 2107 Kirkpatrick Homes, were the oldest members present. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last week.

The meal was followed by a gift about a home in which there was no Christmas. Parts were taken by Mrs. O'Guin, Mrs. Epstein, Mrs. Edith Maxwell, Mrs. Bobbie Reagan and John Solenberger.

County Issues 2 Tavern Licenses In Area

A county liquor permit for a tavern near Granite City which has changed ownership and renewal of another license in this area for the 1963 calendar year were authorized Thursday at the county liquor commission.

Howard Fields obtained a license to operate the former Moran's tavern at 3200 Maryville road for the remainder of December upon payment of the $25 prorated portion of the full $300 annual license fee.

A license renewal for 1963 was given Wilson Leloyde as operator of the 111 Sportsman Club, formerly the Big Oak Tavern.

A six-week course is designed for young farmers who cannot regularly attend college.

Farmers who attend the event can choose from 21 courses in the areas of agricultural economics, agricultural engineering, agronomy, animal science, dairy science, horticulture and veterinary medicine.

All short course instructors are college professors prominent in their fields of study and up to date on the latest research findings.

The short course offers young farmers an opportunity to become regular college students for their six-week stay on the U. of I. campus. Athletic events, dances, concerts and other activities offered to regular students are featured on the social side of the short course.

40-Acre Tract North Of Granite City To Be Developed As Recreation Park

Negotiations have been completed for the purchase of a 40-acre tract north of Granite City. Two local men who plan to develop a recreation park on the tract.

The purchase was Melvin Palab and Arthur Harbarger of Granite City, who say they plan to develop a lake on the property and construct service buildings. They may erect an indoor firing range for use by police officers for practice firing and training.

The property was purchased from Hoeffken Brothers of Bellefontaine, with Arthur Hoff of Morris Realty Co. acting as agent.

Purchase price was not disclosed, but it was learned that Hoeffken Brothers bought the property in 1961 for $50,000.

The tract fronts on U. S. Route 40, just east of the highway's intersection with Route 154, and includes a spring-fed lake, which will be stocked with fish, the new owners said, in time for opening next spring. The property is to be enclosed with fencing, and tentative plans are to begin construction of major buildings on the property by late summer of 1963. The owners estimate that complete development of the planned recreational area will cost $230,000.

In This Season of Good Will...

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Social Security Accounts Should Be Verified

Quid-Cityans are being asked to look into the status of their Social Security accounts.

The request is being made by the district Social Security office in East St. Louis. District Manager Ralph Brasher is stressing that individuals should check their Social Security accounts every three years to determine the accuracy of the administration's records.

With this verification is a form that may be clipped and pasted to a post card and mailed to the Social Security office, 1815 Delaware avenue. It will be forwarded to the Social Security Administration main office. The forms also may be dropped off personally at the Press-Record office.

The Social Security Administration will mail a statement of earnings to the individual upon receiving the request.

It will show total earnings since 1937 along with a breakdown of annual income for the last three years.

If the Social Security records do not coincide with those of the wage earner, the individual should report the discrepancy in East St. Louis.

A mission for the Social Security district office explained the administration office in Quid-City.
